

PILOT PATTER

Pilot Club of Chattanooga, TN

JULY 2016

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Pilots,

Surprise! It's me again. I will be filling in for President Judy until she is well enough to write to you. She had an unfortunate accident and has broken the bone in her left upper arm. She is quite uncomfortable and in a sling; but thankfully, she has been able to avoid surgery. President-elect Bertie Lou will step in until Judy is up to the task.

As you know, we had to delay the annual Pilot picnic until the pool was refurbished at the Nance home....so now we will wait until Tuesday, August 23rd, to have that event. It will be a covered dish. You can sign up for your favorite dish at the meeting at the Walden Club next Tuesday, July, 26th, or just let Tina know what you will bring just before that date. We will have fried chicken, by request, for sure!

We will have the Pilot International Convention report from Joyce and Max and some good Pilot fellowship at our next meeting at the Walden Club on Tuesday, July 26th. Please plan to join us.

In Pilot friendship,

Charlynnne

Do you remember November 1995 ?

PERIPATETIC PILOTS

Pilots really outdid themselves travelling this month. Even short trips were interesting -- others really exotic. See below.

Ollie and Co-Pilot John, flew to San Francisco to meet their son. Then continued to Salt Lake City, Jackson Hole and Yellowstone Park in Wyoming, and on to Ennis, Montana, where they paused for some fishing; Continued to Glacier National Park and sun Valley, Idaho. Quite an itinerary! We want to see and hear more, Ollie.

Martha Pat off to Branson for the Thanksgiving/Christmas "Ozark Mountain Festival of Lights" and 6 shows including Shoji Tabuchi. (Sounds great, Ed.)

Carolyn Wilson visiting her son who is teaching in a college in Bratislava, Slovakia.

Bertie Lou McMutrie is on the District Growth Team. Accompanied by Dotty Johnson, she recently visited the Sevier Co. Pilot Club in Pigeon Forge and plans to soon visit the Morristown Club accompanied by Lil Cathcart.

Betty Chadwick to South Africa with a group who will meet and discuss business practices with people who are in positions similar to their own. - Should be extremely interesting, Betty.
